

SECTION 1107.23 HOUSING ORDINANCE FOR RENTAL PROPERTY

1107.23 SUBD. 1. PURPOSE.

1. To provide minimum standards to safeguard life or limb, health and public welfare by regulating and controlling the use and occupancy, maintenance and repair of all buildings and structures within the City of Belle Plaine used for the purpose of rental housing.
2. To not create or otherwise establish or designate any particular class or group of persons who will or should be especially protected or benefited by the terms of this Section.

1107.23 SUBD. 2. SCOPE.

1. Shall apply to all buildings or portions thereof used, or designed or intended to be rented, leased or let for human habitation.
2. Shall apply to dwellings in existence at the time of adoption of this Section.
3. Shall not apply to nursing homes, motels, hotels, or bed and breakfast inns.

1107.23 SUBD. 3. APPLICABILITY TO EXISTING BUILDINGS.

1. Additions, alterations, or repairs shall be done in compliance with the Building, Fire, Plumbing, Mechanical and Electrical Codes. Applicable permits shall apply as required by these Codes.
2. Properties not existing as Rental Property at the time of adoption of this Section and afterward becoming Rental Property shall, before being certified, comply with all the provisions of this Section. Properties pre-existing at the adoption of this Section shall be allowed a reasonable time to comply. Reasonable time being defined on a case-by-case basis subject to the discretion of the Building Official.

1107.23 SUBD. 4. DEFINITIONS.

1. "Building Official" means any person designated by the City to perform inspections and determine compliance with the applicable rules, standards, statutes, and ordinances.
2. "Licensed Owner" means any person, firm or corporation who alone, jointly, or severally with others, shall be in actual possession of, or have charge, care, or control of any dwelling, dwelling unit, or residential rental property within the City as an owner, employee, or agent of the owner or a trustee or guardian of the estate or person of the title holder.
3. "Residential Rental Property" means any dwelling unit not occupied by the homestead owner of record. Such a unit may be a single-family dwelling, a separate and independent housekeeping unit within a single-family dwelling, a group home, one unit of a two-family dwelling, or a portion of a multiple-family dwelling, any of which are available by lease, by use, by rent, or for any other good and valuable consideration whether occupied or vacant at the present time.

4. “Unsafe conditions” mean conditions which in the opinion of the Building Official reasonable constitute an imminent threat to health, life, safety, or property.

1107.23 SUBD. 5. RENTAL HOUSING LICENSE REQUIRED

1. License Required. It is unlawful for any person to hereafter occupy, allow to be occupied, advertise for occupancy, solicit occupants of, or let to another person for occupancy any residential rental property within the City for which there is not an effective license.
2. Application. The owner or manager of a structure, in which one (1) or more dwelling units or rooming units are let or intended to be let, shall make application for a rental housing license prior to letting the unit, unless such unit is currently licensed. Initial application and renewal shall be made upon an application form furnished by the City. The application shall be subject to a fee as may be established by the City under ordinance or resolution. The Building Official may issue a temporary rental housing license not exceeding three (3) months in duration in order to bring the unit into compliance with this Section.
3. Information Requirement. The Application shall contain, at a minimum, the following information:
  - a. Name, address, email address, and phone number of the property owner and, if owner is not a natural person, the name, address, email address, and phone number of a designated agent for the owner.
  - b. The name, phone number, and address of any authorized property manager or property management representative.
  - c. The street address of the rental property.
  - d. The number and types of units within the rental property (dwelling units or sleeping rooms).
4. The Licensed Owner is responsible for notifying the City of changes in ownership of the rental property within thirty (30) calendar days of sale of the property.
5. Issuance. The Building Official shall issue a rental housing license for each dwelling, dwelling unit or rooming unit, when upon inspection finds such unit meets or exceeds the minimum requirements set forth by this Section; also a rental housing license shall be issued for each dwelling, dwelling unit or rooming unit, when a variance has been granted by the Board of Appeals; provided, however, it is found that no condition exists, in a shared or public area of the building or in any other part of the unit, which could endanger the health or safety of the occupants of such unit or of the public.
6. License availability. Licenses shall be made available upon request.
7. Posting. Every owner of residential rental property shall conspicuously post a copy of the current license (in a frame with transparent cover) in a public corridor, hallway, or lobby of the rental property for which it is issued. For properties with one or two units, the owner must post the license certificate in a frame with a transparent cover in such a manner so as to be easily viewed and readable in the building for which it was issued.

8. Renewals. A rental housing license shall expire two (2) years after the date of issuance. Re-inspection of all dwellings, dwelling units or rooming units shall be required prior to issuance of a new license. Applications for licenses shall be made in writing on forms provided by the City and accompanied by the fee amounts as established by the City Council. Such application shall be submitted at least sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date of the license.
9. Transfer of Ownership. No later than thirty (30) days after licensed residential rental property is sold, the purchaser must provide written notice to the City of the purchase, provide the City with the information required under Section 1107.23, Subd 12(3) and pay a fee for transferring a license, if required. Failure to make application within the specified time limit shall result in automatic forfeiture of the license. Relicensing of any property for which the license has been forfeited shall require application for a new license.
10. License Suspension or Revocation. A Rental Housing License may be suspended or revoked as prescribed in this Section:
  - a. Every license or permit issued under this Section is subject to the City's right, which is hereby expressly reserved, to suspend or revoke the same should the license holder or their agents, employees, representatives, or lessees directly or indirectly operate or maintain rental dwellings contrary to the provisions of this Section or any other City Code provision, or any use permit issued by the City or the laws of the State of Minnesota.
  - b. Any license may be suspended or revoked at any time during the life of said license for good cause, including but not limited to, the following:
    - i. False or misleading information given or provided in connection with the initial license application or renewal;
    - ii. Failure to pay any fee herein provided for;
    - iii. Failure to allow access for the rental inspection;
    - iv. Failure to correct violations in the time period prescribed;
    - v. Violations committed or permitted by the licensed owner and/or the owner's designated agent, of any rules, codes, statutes and ordinances relating to, pertaining to, or governing the license and the premises.
  - c. No license shall be suspended or revoked until the licensed owner has been afforded an opportunity for a hearing. The hearing shall be before the City Council and shall be evidentiary in nature. The City Council shall determine whether or not a violation has occurred warranting revocation of the rental license. The decision of the City Council shall be final and subject only to any rights of review or appeal to the state courts as provided by Statute. The licensed owner must request a hearing in writing within 30 days of receiving a notice of intent to revoke the rental license. If a written request for a hearing is not received from the licensed owner the right to an evidentiary hearing is deemed waived and the City may presume the truth and accuracy of the violations alleged. The City Council may order restoration of the rental license if the licensed owner establishes by clear and convincing evidence that one of the following two circumstances then exist:

- i. The property has been sold since the occurrence of the original violation to a party unrelated to the original owner. The sale must be for a fair consideration, negotiated at arm's length, and by Deed duly recorded.
- ii. The licensed owner demonstrates to the City Council that any condition leading to suspension or revocation has been properly responded to, that measures have been taken to successfully correct the violation which originally resulted in the revocation, and that additional steps have been taken to assure that similar violations do not occur in the future.

1107.23 SUBD. 6. INSPECTIONS.

1. Right of Entry. When it is necessary to make an inspection to enforce the provisions of this Section, or when the Building Official has reasonable cause to believe that there exists in a building or upon a premises a condition that is contrary to or in violation of this Section, the Building Official may enter the building or premises at reasonable times to inspect or to perform the duties imposed by this Section, provided that property owner is notified and either property owner or tenant or other person having charge or control of the building or premises permits entry. If entry is refused, the Building Official shall have recourse to the remedies provided by law to secure entry.
2. Property owners and their agents shall permit the Building Official to inspect all premises governed by this Section to determine if the building is operated as a rental property and/or to determine compliance with the provisions of this section, and shall fully cooperate with such inspections at any time, on reasonable notice. The property owners or their agents shall make reasonable efforts to notify tenants of planned inspections of their rental units to the extent required by state law.
3. Failure of a property owner to obey any of the requirements of this subdivision shall subject the property owner to suspension or revocation of license, in addition to other remedies and/or penalties provided by law. Any such suspension or revocation shall continue until the inspection sought has been completed, any violations satisfactorily remedied and any outstanding fees or penalties have been paid.
4. Complaint Inspections. The Building Official shall inspect a unit upon receiving a legitimate complaint. Complainant's name shall be kept confidential pursuant to the Minnesota Data Privacy Act. Upon inspection and finding a violation the inspector shall notify the owner, manager or tenant in writing to correct the violation. The owner or manager may request an advisory inspection of a unit. Prior to contacting the City, tenants shall first notify the building owner of a complaint in writing, requesting action to correct the issue. Issues relating to immediate life safety are exempt from the notification provision of this Subsection.

1107.23 SUBD. 7. COMPLIANCE ORDER.

1. Whenever the Building Official determines that any residential rental property or the premises surrounding a residential rental property, fails to meet the provisions of this Section, the Building Official may issue a compliance order setting forth the violations of the code and ordering the owner, occupant, operator, or agent to correct such violations. The compliance order must:
  - a. Be in writing and be personally delivered or mailed to the owner of the subject property at the last known address of record;
  - b. Describe the location and nature of the violations of this Section or any other applicable City Code Section;
  - c. Establish a reasonable time, not to exceed 90 days, for the correction of such violations;
  - d. Include information regarding the owner's right to appeal the order and the procedure to be followed in filing such an appeal;
  - e. State that in the event the violations are not corrected within the time set in the compliance order, the license may be suspended or that the necessary work may be performed by the City at the expense of the owner and that if the owner does not pay for the expense, the cost of the work will be assessed against the property.
2. Failure to correct violations within the time period stated in the correction order may result in an administrative penalty to be set by Council resolution, as well as other sanctions provided by law or this ordinance. If the correction order relates to actions or omissions of the occupant, and the occupant fails to make the necessary correction, the owner may be required to remedy the condition by whatever means necessary. No adverse action shall be taken against an owner for failure to remedy a condition during the pendency of a bona fide eviction proceeding being pursued diligently by the owner.
3. Extensions may be granted by the Building Official. The request shall be made in writing with justifiable cause demonstrated for the requested extension. All requests shall be made and delivered to the Building Official prior to the expiration date of the violation or violations.
4. Compliance Order – Unsafe Conditions.
  - a. Buildings or portions thereof determined to have unsafe conditions as defined in Section 1107.23, Subd. 4, as may be amended, are hereby declared to be a public nuisance and shall be abated by repair, rehabilitation, demolition or removal as provided for under Chapter 4 of the City Code as may be amended.

- b. No occupancy shall be permitted for any dwelling or rental unit when, in the opinion of the Building Official, there exists an unsafe condition as defined in Section.
- c. Notice to Vacate. The Building Official shall have the authority to issue a Notice to Vacate Order on any building that is, in the opinion of the Building Official and as defined in this Section, deemed unsafe. The notice to vacate shall be served on the property owner and posted on each entrance to the building. The notice to vacate shall recite the emergency or conditions that necessitate vacation and shall require that no person be allowed to remain in or enter the building, except that entry may be made to repair, demolish, or remove such building if allowed by any required permit. The posted notice to vacate will include the following: “Do not Enter. This premise is unsafe or illegal to occupy. It is a misdemeanor to occupy this building or to remove or deface this notice”. In addition, the notice to vacate shall be signed by the Building Official and include contact information for the Building Official. The notice to vacate shall remain posted until corrective action has been taken and verified by the Building Official.
- d. As determined by the Building Official, situations in which unsafe conditions exist are exempt from the 90 day ‘reasonable time’ correction period as defined in Section 1107.23, Subd. 7(1)(c).

1107.23 SUBD. 8. APPEAL PROCESS.

1. When it is alleged by any person to whom a correction order is directed that such order is based upon erroneous interpretation of the applicable rules, standards, statutes, or ordinance or a mistake in fact finding, such person may appeal the correction order to the Board of Zoning Appeals and Adjustments as established under the City Code Chapter 206.
2. The appeal shall be in writing and must specify the grounds for the appeal. The appeal must be filed within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving the correction order. Upon receipt of the written appeal the City shall set a date for a hearing and give the appellant at least fourteen (14) days prior written notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing. By mutual agreement between the appellant and the City the fourteen (14) day notice may be waived.
3. The appellant shall have the right to appear and be represented by counsel. The Board of Zoning Appeals and Adjustments shall hear and consider the matter within thirty-days (30) of the filing of an appeal. The filing of an appeal shall stay all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the Building Official determines that such a stay would cause imminent peril to life, health, or property.
4. The Board of Zoning Appeals and Adjustment shall issue its recommendation to the Council and the appellant in writing within thirty-days (30) after the hearing. The Council shall thereafter affirm, modify or reverse the correction order upon such terms as the Council deems necessary to accomplish the purposes of this ordinance. A copy of the decision shall be mailed to the appellant.

1107.23 SUBD. 9. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS.

No dwelling or dwelling unit shall be let for occupancy to another, which does not comply with the following requirements:
